

SACXS Legacy Project Award

Candidate Name: _____

Candidate Phone Number: _____

Candidate E-mail: _____

Candidate Type: Individual Business Organization

Project Description: Please provide a description of the nominated candidate's achievement, including how the achievement has contributed to the conservation, preservation, or/and education of cacti, xerophytic plants, and/or their habitats.

Project Goals: Please describe the goals of this achievement and how they are important to solving environmental and conservation problems related to cacti and xerophytic plants.

Nomination Category: Select the categories for which you are submitting this nomination.
(You must select at least 2)

- The achievement qualifies as an educational element that promotes the awareness of native xerophytes. _____
- The individual, business, or organization discourages the collection or removal of xerophytes from their natural habitat. _____
- The individual, business, or organization encourages the ethical propagation of xerophytes. _____
- The individual, business, or organization discourages the sale, purchase, and promotion of field collected xerophytes. _____
- The achievement qualifies as an educational element that promotes the awareness and conservation of threatened and endangered xerophytes. _____

On-Going Achievements: Provide examples of the candidate's achievements that demonstrate on-going work in the areas of conservation, preservation, or/and education. Has the candidate developed a reputation or been recognized by peers in this area(s)?

Please include additional recognition through other awards programs, societies, institutions, etc.

All nominations must be submitted at SACXS.org. or to a Legacy Project committee member.

